

C. Announcements

1. Sale is for cash only.
2. You are selling all right, title and interest of the judgment debtor only.
3. All sales are subject to approval of the Sheriff. Therefore, no sale is final until the successful bidder receives a certificate of sale signed by the Sheriff or Undersheriff.
4. Any upset price that has been fixed must be announced prior to taking bids.
5. Unreasonably low bids or an insufficient number of bidders may allow you to cancel or postpone a sale or withdraw items. If you are going to exercise this right, announce that you will and be certain that you have facts sufficient to justify your action. Remember that Sheriffs' sales are sacrifice situations and therefore not likely to generate high prices. The exception to this rule happens when the property to be sold is in short supply.
Note: If a sale is postponed, the notice requirements must again be complied with.
6. No warranty is made.
7. Sales are not completed until the purchaser completes payment. Thus, if the purchaser receives the Sheriff's consent to delay payment until a certain time, the purchaser's rights may be cut off by the debtor tendering to the Sheriff the amount due on the judgment.

D. The Sale

1. Keep a detailed record of all bids received.
2. The most important factor to be considered in the exercise of discretion by the Sheriff at an execution sale is what will bring the highest price. Within this general guideline, the Sheriff has considerable discretion.
3. The best method of sale is to sell the property in bulk first and by lot secondly. If you do it by the reverse method, you will likely induce bulk bidders to make an offer only slightly above the combination of lot bids.
4. Mortgaged property should be sold in lots or combinations that will wholly encompass the mortgage right. That is not to say you should search records to determine mortgage rights, etc. This is a matter for the creditor's attorney to handle. A mortgage and the amount outstanding may be announced at the time of sale but be certain that you also announce that you do not represent or warrant to amount or validity.
5. The time of the sale is within the Sheriff's discretion, and the important factor for consideration here is securing the highest possible purchase price.
6. The Sheriff, his deputies and Undersheriff are not allowed to purchase property at an execution sale (CPLR 5233(a)). However, only the Sheriff (and his deputies, etc.) who conducts the sale is disqualified—other Sheriffs or their deputies may purchase at an execution sale.

E. Taxes

1. Sales taxes must be paid by non-exempt purchasers. Only an exemption certificate will suffice.
2. Excise and luxury taxes on items such as jewelry, cosmetics and furs do not have to be paid by rule of I.R.S.
3. At retail, taxes on gas, alcohol, tobacco, etc. are already paid. So no further action is required.
4. Less than retail. When a levy occurs at the wholesale or other levels, you may be confronted with a variety of tax problems. Contact appropriate Federal or State agency and invite them to attend the sale. Usually in cases of this type, you can only sell to licensed dealers.

F. Certificate of Sale

1. This form should be prepared in duplicate.
2. It should be signed by the Sheriff or Undersheriff
3. Form (See form).

X DISTRIBUTION OF PROCEEDS & PRIORITIES ON PERSONAL PROPERTY (CPLR 5234)

- A. Fees, Expenses and Taxes should be deducted.
- B. Judgment Creditor Should Get Balance.
- C. Judgment Debtor Should Get Any Excess.
- D. Where two or more executions or attachments against the same judgment debtor are delivered to different enforcement officers (e.g., one to Sheriff, one to City Marshall) and personal property in the jurisdiction of all the officers is levied upon, the proceeds go to the execution or attachment first levied, and then to the remaining creditors who, before the proceeds are distributed, make a demand upon the levying enforcement officer, in the order of their demands (CPLR 5234).

NOTES

XI STAYS, APPEALS, BANKRUPTCY

A. Stays

Stays can occur at most any time during the enforcement cycle. A stay is usually a temporary condition that prevents you from going any further, but does not usually require you to release property or levies.

B. Appeals

1. Service of an appeal usually only has the effect of a stay under CPLR 5519.
2. You should not release property or levy on appeal without an order under CPLR 5204. Such an order usually provides for payment of fees, expenses and poundage.
3. Consult your legal advisor.

C. Bankruptcy

1. Prior to levy—do not proceed
2. After levy—depending upon time of levy coupled with time of filing of petition in bankruptcy, you may be required by the bankruptcy court to turn over levied property to them.
3. Sale—postpone and notify the bankruptcy court.
4. In any event you should bring bankruptcy petition to the attention of creditor's attorney and your legal advisor.

XII RETURN ON PROPERTY EXECUTION

A. Defined:

A return is the act of the Sheriff in redelivering the execution with an account of his success or failure in fulfilling its directions (CPLR 5230(c)).

B. Types:

See notes on income executions.

C. Reasons (Supplemental):

1. "Execution Vacated"—by court order (not stayed).
2. "No Known Assets"—you have 60 days in which to locate assets (life of execution).
3. "Judgment Debtor Bankrupt"—(again, by court order).
4. "Moved—Unable to Locate".
5. "Withdrawn".

Mr. Richard Fahrenz

Dear Mr. Fahrenz:

After our telephone conversation a few days ago, I did contact Chris Esworthy and went with him to WUCI. I took an inventory of the equipment there, and identified the items that were actually on the Federal lien as well as items that were listed on the lien but were missing, and items that were present but not listed.

The following items are listed on that lien but were missing:

- 1 Belar FMM-2 Monitor
- 1 Belar FMS-s Stereo Monitor
- 1 Belar RFA-1 RF amplifier
- 1 LPB S-13C console
- 1 Ramsa WR-8118 console
- 1 Atari MX5050BQII tape recorder (The correct spelling is Otari but all paper work indicates "Atari".)

Former paperwork indicated that the Belar equipment and the LPB console was purchased from us. However, we never completed those orders and did not ship that equipment because of the credit problems.

The following equipment was being used at the station, but is not listed on the Federal lien:

- 1 Collins Mark 8 console (Used in control room)
- 1 CCA FM and Stereo modulation monitor
- 1 Gates/Harris GTM-88F Frequency monitor
- 1 McMartin TBM-2500 RF amplifier
- 1 Equipment rack cabinet
- 2 Technics SP-15 turntables

(The above are all in the control room)

- 1 Gates/Harris Gateway II audio console
- 2 QRK Turntables
- 1 Reel to Reel tape recorder

2 Monitor speakers

(All of this is in the production studio)

At the transmitter, there is an equipment rack, the Cable connectors, and a taper reducer that are not listed in the lien.

In addition, there appears to be some office furniture as well as a record and tape library that might be considered for a Sherriff's sale.

Looking around the station, I have serious doubts that the station is in compliance with several of the FCC requirements.

I have ordered copies of their FCC files, and may consider starting a FCC action as well.

In the meantime, I would like to explore the possibility of executing a sale on anything that is not covered by the Federal lien.

Please provide any paperwork necessary to Chris Esworthy for that purpose.

If you should need any additional information, or have any questions regarding this equipment, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

William Bingham
